NUMBER 36

"TELL MY FRIENDS TO BE BRAVE AND FEARLESS, AND LOYAL TO THE GREAT COMMON PEOPLE."

BRODHEAD

Mr. J. E. Wallen's baby is quite sick at this time.

Mr. R. H. Hamm went to Mt. Vernon Monday eve.

Mrs. J. W. Tate is visiting relatives in Mt. Vernon, this week.

Mr. Alex Tyree bought of Mr. Ayres, a very fine yearling colt, for $35.

Mrs. R. S. Martin and Mrs. E. F. Protheroe are visiting friends at Maretburg.

A crowd, of Brodhead, young ladies, stormed Mr. Morris Frith and wife Friday night.

Master Goebel Pike, who has been very sick for some weeks, is no better at this writing.

Our neighbor, Mr. J. W. Tate, has been assigned to the judicial department of the Rockcastle Circuit Court this week.

Elder Livingston, of the Crab Orchard section, filled his appointment with his people here last Sunday and Sunday night. He gave a good talk on the training of children.

Mr. Thunp Baker is putting a new roof on his cottage this week.

Mrs. Mary Collyer, who has been quite feeble for some time, from the effect of lung trouble, anticipates going to a warmer climate for her health.

Bro. Pike has received an invitation, to go to Rolling Fork Lodge of F. A. & M., in Marion county, Ky., next Saturday, to deliver an address on the subject of Masonry.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sage, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting relatives and friends in this county, this week. Mrs. Sage was Miss Florence Griffin, of Maretburg, before marriage. They have a sweet little boy with them, as the result of their union.

The Rev. Palmer, of Junction City, will preach at the Baptist church, the first Saturday eve at 2 o'clock p. m. and Sunday at eleven we ask every body to come out to hear him. He will be here in view of a call as pastor for the Baptist church, so we hope all the church will be present to consult together on this subject.

Mr. W. A. Carson is at home this week, and he is having so many calls that he says he is the most popular man in our town. He says people will run clean across the street to shake hands with him if he should go from home and stay one month. We do not know how much he would be missed, it is good for a man to learn how much he is appreciated and his worth to the community, at least once a year.

Mr. J. M. Brown, but better known as uncle John Brown, late of the Preachersville neighborhood, is visiting relatives and friends in this county this week. He stopped Sat with his brother Jonas Brown, of Brodhead, but is now out in his old home neighborhood. Uncle John was once one of Rockcastle best citizens, and has many friends in this county. He is the father of W. H. Brown of Preachersville and Dr. R. J. Brown of Stanford.

Miss Ada Baker, who has been sick for some months with that much dreaded disease, viz. consumption, is not expected to live but a short time. She will be the third member of the Baker family that has passed away in the last three years. This will only leave one young lady and two little boys, without father or mother in the home. So it will be a good place for Christians to show that they are in possession of pure and undefiled religion.

Mr. Edgar Albright, the energetic and hustling editor of the Mt.

Vernon Signal, was with us again last Saturday. Mr. Albright is a Christian gentleman, and while it is true he has no loving father to advise and help him, yet he has one of the best mothers, of any young man in our county.

And as Mr. Albright is making such an earnest effort to give the people of Rockcastle county an up-to-date county newspaper, we feel it to be the duty of every citizen to help him all they can, by subscribing for his paper.

An other home has been made happy in our town, by the appearance of another boy, and our brother Richard, is wearing a bright smile over the result. So you can foresee that our county will finely go Democratic. Notwithstanding, our friend the Hon. P. D. Collyer, the chairman of the Republican county committee seems bent on stamping out "Goebelism," in this county. But we wish to notify him in advance, that if he succeeds he will have to fall on some better plans than those suggested in the Kentucky Colonel.

Mr. Willie Mullins, of Livingston, was in Brodhead Sunday, visiting his uncle, A. J. Pike

FOUGHT FOR HIS LIFE.

"My father and sister both died of Consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of Pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infallible for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung trouble. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed bottles Soc. and $1.00 At all druggists.

SHUDDERS AT HIS PAST.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Leavenworth, O., "my three years of suffering from Kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivaled to regulate Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c. At all druggists.

BOBBITT'S REMINISCENT.

MT. VERNON, Ky., May 28th, 1901.

Editor Mt. Vernon Signal.— Being again in your town, and feeling like Ponce de Leon, an old man of fading fame and failing fortune, my mind reverts back four decades, when I, as a beardless boy came here to make a speech for Breckinridge and Lane in 1860. I remember in one of my lofty outbursts of eloquence, a man in the audience exclaimed, "that is a d—n lie!" I said, I only speak of the record to vindicate the truth of history, then he said, "History lies!" Up to that time, I had never had a fight,—but since that time, I have whipped more than half a dozen men, for far less insult. I then did not know that I would fight. Rockcastle county has produced many great men, and her citizens are the most loyal and devoted to their government, I ever saw. John Moore and Bill Moore were two of Rockcastle's great men and lawyers. John Moore knew the Scripture like Jasper Brown knows the old "Blue-back spelling book." Bill Moore was a great wit, and his dry humor was inimitable. After he removed to Somerset, amid a terrible dearth of fees, a countryman, who thought, like the Pharisee, that a lawyer would be heard for his much speaking, came to town with $25 in his hand, and approaching each lawyer, James, Williams, McKee and others, held out the money to each and said, "How long will you speak for this?" Some said more, some less, some said many hours, but when he held the money out to Bill Moore and said: "How long will you speak for this $25?" Bill Moore threw up his hands and exclaimed: "Till I 'drap' dead in my tracks!" Your Adams' of this county, were also men of strong giant minds, and the Adams' all over this country, were remarkable for their strong vigorous minds. The second and sixth Presidents of the United States were Adams',—father and son,—a remarkable incident, that perhaps will never occur again! The people of this county have much, of which, to be justly proud, your wooded hills, your lonely dells, your crystal springs, your purling rivulets, your true brave men, your beautiful angelic women!

I now want to talk to you a little about another great giant production of our common country—Ephraim L. Van Winkle. He was from the county of Wayne, but was Commonwealth's Attorney and lived in Somerset, and listen how he talked. "I don't like these slow matter of fact orators." "I want a man to come in the roar of a thousand storms and scatter battle from his eyes," "I want him to blow through the mountain and tear up the imbedded granite that has been slumbering in her dark bosom for centuries." Blame old Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson and all our revolutionary forefathers, for inculcating the principle that all men were created free and equal. Had it not been for this damnable heresy thus taught, by our fathers, I would today, have been a knight with no fawning retinue around me, and being descended from a noble German family, I would have been called Sir Ephraim Van Winkle, but instead of that, these low flung sons of so forths, are coming up to me and saying, Eph, by—Eph, "gim me a chaw tobacco."

He addressed an audience of three thousand people at Flat Lick, Pulaski in 1864 and said: "Was Abraham Lincoln ever in the smoke of battle? No Fellow Citizens." But they attempt to disgrace the young hero McClellan, but after the battle of Ball Run, when the Federal forces had been routed, horse, foot, and dragoon; when Abraham Lincoln and his Cabanet, and his Congress were trembling in their boots, expecting every moment for Davis, Beauregard and Johnson to come thundering like modern Hannibals at the gate of the Capital, demanding its surrender. McClellan, McClellan, McClellan was the cry, and the hero of Rich Mountain and Antietam, rushed to the rescue of the National Capital, and drove back the rebel hordes that were threatening it with destruction!" I named Ephraim L. Van Winkle the civil Alexander and he died at the same age and from the same cause. He had not yet arrived at the meridian of his greatness. What a great man fell in the land of Israel, when he went down? But these reminiscences of by-gone days and departed greatness, are too sad. Let us imitate their virtues and shun their vices. The word, meridian reminds me of my old colored cook. The day I left Crab Orchard for Mt. Vernon, I told her, I was going off on the train, and wanted a meridian dinner, "meridulum" dinner Boss, what kind is that?" I am writing in the Court house, court has adjourned and I may be locked in; I shall desist with a sigh for the past, a groan for the present, and a hope for the future.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce Chesley Payne,
candidate for Magistrate in the Second District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided by a vote of five to four that "The Constitution is applicable to the Territories acquired by purchase or conquest only when,
and so far as Congress shall direct." If this be true, Congress is greater than the power which brought it into existence. If it be true in this case, why not in all?
and, what assurance have we that our constitution will not virtually be, in a short time, a thing of the past. This decision is far reaching, so far that we will not probably realize its full extent, for sometime to come. We laugh at England's unwritten constitution, from which her Parliament dare not make a law that would be inconsistent there with, when we look upon our own constitution made by men who were second intellectually, morally, and religiously to no King, prince, or potentate in America to day, as a mere temporary affair made for our government while it was a Republic, and not for the present day system of despotism and monarchy. It is inconsistent with our form of government for the United States to possess territory the citizens of which have not the same rights under the constitution as citizens of any other portion of the country.
A ten year old boy of average sense, can readily see that Congress has no more right to levy tax on goods shipped from Porto Rico to New York than on goods shipped from Sanfrancisco to New York.
Had it not been for the sugar trust no such state of affairs would exist. But it would injure the poor, little, puny, weakly, half-starved sugar trust for Porto Rican sugar to be sold in the States at the price they would sell it, and in order to compensate this great trust for its prorata of campaign boodle to buy enough of those, who opposed McKinley, over to elect him a duty was imposed upon the goods shipped from Porto Rico to any other part of U.S. which caused acres and acres of sugar tame to lay in the field and rot while her people were dying of starvation. And this has all occurred under the reign of Wm.
whose sir name is McKinley, and in the fourth year of his reign.
Is this Republicanism as promulgated by Lincoln, or is it despotism such as our forefathers fought to overcome in 1776?

UNITED STATES SENATOR Tillman, of South Carolina, deserves a great deal of praise from the people of that State for getting McLaurin to resign as Senator.
He saved those people from having to endure what Kentucky had to endure by the imposition of one Senator Lindsay, who we thank our stars, is a thing of the past.
McLaurin offered to resign if Tillman would, and Tillman called his bluff, and as a result they are private citizens. Although Tillman had nearly a full term to McLaurin not two years, yet Tillman resigned to get rid of McLaurin.
It is a great sacrifice to get rid of a traitor, but Mr. Tillman will undoubtedly lose nothing by his action.

The Confederate Reunion at Memphis, is all the Old Confederates expected, and especially the Kentuckians.
Kentucky is strictly in it there, as it is everywhere it has anything to do, and Louisville is of the opinion that the next re-union will be held there.

The governing board of Manila, is to consist of an army officer, a Filipino and an American civilian.
Two to one, for Uncle Sam.

A gusher came in an oil well in Wayne county oil fields a few days ago, and Somerset thinks it is certain to have an oil refinery. We are glad to learn of our neighboring town's good fortune, and sincerely hope their expectations will be fully realized.

LIVINGSTON

R. R. Perry, of Winchester, is the guest of Bill Mullins.

Mrs. Jessie Roller has returned from a trip to Louisville.

J. A. Mullins was in Mt. Vernon Monday, on legal business.

Born, to Mrs. Annie Elmore, Wednesday, a little son—Guy Linville.

Miss Ella Stanley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Ward, at Altamont.

Mrs. Hughes and daughter, Miss Mystle, are visiting Mrs. W. R.
Dillion.

Mrs. W. B. Dillon and children are visiting Mrs. Bettie Broadus, of Lincoln county.

It is not necessary to say that Quo Vadis, has returned, as Stub has already announced it.

We see the "Little Judge," on the street every night, as a guard, I wonder where "Love" is—

G. W. Griffin is making many improvements on his home, which will add to the looks of our city.

Misses Beulah and Texas Henderson of Madison county, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Lewis Dillion.

Mrs. J. H. Tucker, of Lebanon
Junction, is the guest of Mrs. W.
R. Dillon, at the Riverside Mansion.

Messrs. T. Griffin and A. Howell have gone on an extended fishing trip, up the river—success boys.

J. F. Hocker, of Pittsburg, was in town visiting his son, the "Parson," and daughter, Mrs. D. S.
McKinney.

W. C. Mullins and R. R. Perry have gone up the river fishing.
When Bill goes the fish had better climb a tree.

John Magee, John Pope, R.
Hampton, J. H. Hagan, J. J. Clancy, Will Thornton, Dr. Lucas and W. C. Mullius, were in Mt. Vernon, before the grand jury, this week.

The property of T. D. Mullins, was destroyed by fire, on the night of May 28th. The house was occi-UPIED BY MR. CHESTNUT, whose household goods was saved by the efforts of the citizens of this city.

Livingston, the gem city of Eastern Kentucky, noted for the past years, as being the most orderly and peaceful little city in the State, has at last, received a slap in the face, by its citizens being called before the grand jury for the purpose of indicting some parties, who the goos do not like and for no other purpose—to allow some certain ones to vent their spite. We are sorry such things should be done. We spread the mantle of charity over all, and would suggest that if the instigators of this, will read their Bibles more closely, they would find the Commandment, No. 11, which says:
"Mind thine own busiess and leave others alone," also "Judge not lest ye be judged."

A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Theo Wesley druggist.

ADDITIONAL BRODHEAD.

Our town is filled up with enterprising men. Some trading on one line, and others on different lines. We have some selling horses and mules, others buying, and we have been informed that Mr. W. H. Pettus has been trying to negotiate with Mr. Sam Reelman, for a very fine animal, that Mr. Reelman owns. Mr. W. H.
Sowder has the picture of the animal referred to, taken in connection with his store building, himself and others, but we are not authorized to say that Mr. Pettus has closed the trade yet. I am told if he should get the animal, he anticipates sending him down in Garrard county and put him on his Bluegrass farm, down near Preacherville.

Miss Sarilda Hatter, of Middleburg, is in our town having Dr. I.
S. Burdett treat her eyes, also a Mr. Baxter, of Pittsburg, is here on the same business, so our Doctor is kept busy all the time.

Mr. Bird Roberts and Miss Nannie Haley were united in matrimony in the Baptist church at Brodhead, yesterday at 7:30 p.m., Rev.
A. J. Pike officiating. Bird never seemed so happy before in all his life. We hope the future of their lives will be as bright as this afternoon seemed to be with them.
After they were joined together, they, with a crowd of their friends, went to the home of Mr. J. M.
Roberts, the father of the bridegroom, to enjoy a bountiful repast, prepared for the occasion.

Mr. Jacob Pike, Jr., one of the Republican candidates for jailer, is in Brodhead this week, talking with his republican brethren. This is the 30th day of May, Decoration Day, but our Brodhead people are the best people in the world to comfort the living, and they do not live by the dead, but the living.
So we have no public decoration.

BEWARE OF A COUGH.
A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing.
If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

LOCALS.

STOP THE COUGH AND WORKS OFF THE COLD.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure no pay. Price 25 cents.

MARRIED.—Mr. C. H. Todd and Miss Mary Burnett, daughter, of Boone Burnett, were married last night at Orlando, Rev. William Williams officiating.

PLEASED.—The great majority of the people with whom we talked during this week of Court, most heartily endorse the idea of working the county roads in the spring of the year as the ground is softer and the roads more easily graded.

DEAD.—Mr. James Cummins, age about 80, living 3 miles from this place, on the Somerset road, died Friday and was buried Sunday. Mr. Cummins was a veteran of the war of 61 to 65, and for many years, has been almost an invalid.

MT. VERNON TENT, NO. 21, K. O. T. M.—Will give a free entertainment, on the night of the 6th. of June, at the Miller Hotel. All Maccabees, of the county, are cordially invited to attend. Lady Maccabees are included in the invitation.

CONVICTED.—Richard Sowder was convicted in the circuit court Wednesday, of false swearing and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. It will be remembered that Sowder made an affidavit in the application of E. K. Wilson, for a pardon before before Gov. Beckham. Sowder stated in his affidavit, that he heard David Hysinger make certain statements in regard to the case, at Hysinger's home, in the presence of W. L. Owens, his father-in-law, before Hysinger qualified as a juror in the case. Both Hysinger and Owens took the witness stand Wednesday, and testified that no such statements were made, as were sworn to, by Sowder in this affidavit before Gov. Beckham. We feel sorry for the family of this man, but we have no patience with men, who will try to tear down and destroy the reputation and good standing of our best citizens. The curse of this county has been though false swearing. The guilty have been turned loose, and the innocent have been punished upon perjured testimony, and this verdict is the beginning of the curse against rascals and rascality. Let us all tell the truth and shun the Devil.

MARRIED.—B. B. Beldon, a son of Scott Beldon and a Miss Alexander were married Tuesday.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25cts.

J. W. MARLER,
May 2 t f. Mt. Vernon, Ky.

K OF P.—Including visitors, there were about one hundred came down from Pittsburgh Sunday to attend the decoration of the grave, of James Frazier, who was a member of the Pittsburg Lodge Knights of Pythias.

FANNIE JORDAN DEAD. Fannie G. Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jordan, died last Friday, aged thirteen years and six months.

The cause of her death was spinal meningitis, the fatal illness lasting but a little over two weeks and defying the skill of both the best physicians and most expert healers.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. J. H. Miller and Rev. G. D. Edwards, were held at 2 p. m. last Saturday at the family residence.—The Evening Post, Nevada, Mo.

The deceased's mother used to be Miss Matilda Albright, and was a cousin to the editor of this paper.

CAN'T YOU LEARN HOW.

It seems that some people will never catch on to the use of a telephone. This week we had occasion to see some of the many annoyances caused at the exchange by the failure of users of phones to ring off after finishing their conversation. Some lumberheads would call, ask for a connection and leave the operator to guess when they were through. More than half the trouble at the exchange is caused by this carelessness, or more properly speaking, ignorance. If you can't learn to use a phone, hire a boy to show you now or to do your talking for you.

—Lancaster Record.

MARRIED.—Luther Mullins, the oldest son, of R. B. Mullins, and Miss Mae Sowder were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Saturday night, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Ewers'. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Ewers, after which, some delightful refreshments, which had been hastily prepared, by Mrs. Ewers, were served. While the marriage was expected to take place at some time in the near future, yet, it was not even known to the bride and groom, themselves, until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, that it would take place that night. They will make their home with Mr. Mullins, it being the request of the groom's mother, who departed this life last week, that they do so, in order that her little daughter Bessie, could have some one, who could be with her all the time and carefully look after her. The Signal extends its best wishes to this exceedingly young couple.

CIRCUIT COURT

Circuit court convened Monday, with the largest crowd in town that has attended court of any kind in many years. Judge Morrow delivered, as he always does, a strong and forcible charge to the grand jury, after which, Commonwealth's Attorney Sharp proceeded to dispose of the few Commonwealth cases on the docket.

GRAND JURY.

John P. Houston, David Hysinger, H. W. Rice, John Hibbard, Solly Griffin, J. L. Robbins, E. T. Hansel, Daniel Griffin, Wallace Clark, Harry Blazer, Robt Taylor and H. S. Brannaman.

The grand jury is remarkable for the fact, that the average age of the twelve men, is 61 years and 8 months.

PETIT JURY.

Jack McMullin, Jas. Sexton, J.

M. Todd, J. W. Tate, Solomon Griffin, J. W. Phillips, W. M. Hurst, W. M. Sexton, E. W. Hansel, W. M. Williams, Logan Salter, H. R. Fish, Jacob Elder, G. B. Sutton, J. M. Oliver, Sr., Thos. Bullen, O. F. Hamm, E. B. Miller, Perkins Prewit, D. L. Bryant, J. B. Thompson, Samuel Parsons, J. J. Smith and G. W. Pittman.

But few cases were tried Monday. Those called for trial and reported ready, were as follows: Sam McClure, for selling liquor unlawfully, discharged; John and Able Phillips, for breach of the peace, discharged; Pete Lear, for carrying concealed weapons, discharged. Williams Gaunt, charged with malicious shooting and wounding, and also for carrying concealed weapons, got a continuance in both.

The most important cases on the docket for this term were continued by agreement, which are the case of Mounce vs. the L. & N. R. R. Co; the case of the Commonwealth vs. James Cunningham for killing young Ash, and the Walton damage suit. The case against R. R. Ewel, of London for tampering with the jury wheel, was stricken from the docket. William Preston charged with breaking into and taking goods from the store room of Jones & Smith, plead guilty and was given one year in the pen. William Bradley was fined $50 and cost for selling liquor, and J. W. Carpenter $25 and cost for selling liquor to minor.

Mr. F. A. Ogburn, Asst. Manager and Instructor of the Kentucky Electrikure Company, has the Electrikure on exhibition in office next to C. C. Davis & Co's. drugstore, and invites those who are diseased to call. He also wants agents for every county in the State. Below are some testimonials from Kentucky people:

"Williamsburg, Ky., May 27, 1901.

Electrikure Co., Gentlemen: After four nights treatment for stomach troubles, with the Electrikure, I can say that I have been greatly benefitted and my sleep improved every night. I. J. CURD, Hopkinsville, Ky., Apr. 3, 1899.

I have one of your Electrikures and think it is splendid, and as I have such good health in consequence, I am a walking advertisement for your instrument.

(Miss) COMELIA WALLACE, Grays, Ky Jan. 3, 1899.

Electrikure Co.—In June, 1897, I bought an Electrikure. I was almost dead with KIDNEY TROUBLE, FEMALE COMPLAINT, and with LIVER, STOMACH, HEART and NERVES all diseased. I had been getting in this condition during forty years of suffering, and for eight months previous to use of instrument, was bedfast. Previous to its use, I had no appetite, and was skin and bone for want of nourishment, and had brown patches all over me. I am now sixty-two years old and can eat any food with a relish, and weigh 160 pounds with skin clear, and able for any duty; and for all these benefits, I thank God and the Electrikure.

COOKSBURG

Splendid rains; farmers happy; corn planting about done.

All our sick folks, in this neighborhood, are improving.

Everybody that knows James Buchanan Varnon, the sage of Possum Hollow, loves, honors and respects him, and he is all right anyway,—except his pollytix,—lord how little he knows, politix-acy, but he has made mi ole ooman mad as a wet hen. Sez Tirza Jane, that's mi old oowan—sezshe, look here ole man, ef i wus u, an a man cal'd me a lether pate, i wud giv him a peice ov my mind, PROV'D i had eny. Now J. B. V., u look out, i am goin to sho Tirza Jane; i got lots of mind and sech. and show you i kant be kalled names and not sass back. Now, I see by the nuse papers that; what time J. B. V. is not runnin for skile komishenor, an by the wa he wud make a splendid komishenor, of it wur not fur his pollytix, which i abominate. When ever he sets down an not runnin fur kimishenor, he is after the Pikes, not Bro Pike and the Pike family, but stone pikes; shore nuff Pikes, to ride in his carriage over, with his driver, and plug hat. We all are in favor of pikes and brick houses with glass windows and a miranda in front, with clinin roses, brussel karpet and a pianer, but whose going to pay for them. O, sez J. B. V., we will give our bonds and let posterity pay them off, who is posterity? I don't no him. I kno adversity and poverty and calamity and the tax man, who packs a pistol and sez your tax or yore kow. Spec they kin of hist. Now bruther J. B. V., dont you think posterity wil have his haans full of his own needs, without us adding to them? Why, what are we doing, we've cut, sold and ship ped off neary all the timber; we've skimmed the cream off the hillsides, and if it wasn't for the fertilizers that are sold by the carload, we wouldn't raise much, and if we saddle posterity with a load of bonds they will have to pull up stakes and be an emigrant, and the pikes will grow up with broom sage and sassafras, and the land be a howling wilderness. My idea, and I am only one, is put a tax of 25c
